

Sigrid Kempeneers , AT&T
Director Global Project Management – BSO Business Solution

Sigrid currently resides in Dilsen - Stokkem, BE and joined AT&T after College in Jan 2003 as an OS and in 2005 as a PW

Loves to travel ,did an exchange program to Mexico – Cuernavaca when she was 18 and did her internships in Madrid (international marketing) and Barcelona (PR). As Sigrid was not that easy to pronounce everyone called me Sigi, which is still used today .

Sigrid has held a variety of roles in Service Assurance, from first line technician to Global Director CMC & WAIM. (Customer Maintenance Centre and Worldwide Access Intervention Management) and since 2012 Director Global Project Management

Current role Director Global Project Management primarily responsible for a global team who completes highly successful complex service delivery projects for AT&T's largest customers using best-in-class professional project management practices. To exceed client expectations, and accelerate revenue growth through planning, coordination and control of scope, schedule, and resources

Holds a Bachelor of Science degree in International Marketing and Public Relations and has been a Project Management Certified Professional (PMP) since 2013.

Founding member of ATT EMEA Women Network, is cochair for Women in Business and lead for Aspire Belgium. She loves being a dreamcoach for Vlajo and is proud that the second girl's day was again a great success

Sigrid is married and is mum of 2, a 6 year old son called Raf and an almost 4 year old daughter Anne – Sophie. She doesn't believe in work / life balance but believes you have to love what you do